

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA IRVINE CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the undergraduate students of the University of California, Irvine, by the authority of the Regents of the University of California and the Chancellor of this campus, and as an autonomous constituency of this university community; desire, through independent action, or in concert with other constituencies of this university community, to provide a forum for the expression of the student views and interests, encourage and maintain the freedom to pursue knowledge, encourage student academic rights and responsibilities, represent and articulate our rights to a voice in campus governance, to enhance the quality of student life, and foster recognition of the rights of students in this university community; and in order to fulfill these aspirations, do, hereby ordain and establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the official undergraduate student government body shall be the Associated Students, University of California, Irvine, herein after referred to as ASUCI.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

Section A

A voting member of ASUCI shall be defined as any registered undergraduate student having paid the established ASUCI fee.

Section B

All members of ASUCI shall be entitled to any privileges of that membership which include but are not limited to: voting in all ASUCI elections, seeking an ASUCI appointed office, participating in all ASUCI activities, and benefiting from all ASUCI services and programs.

Section C

As do all administrative units, ASUCI shall adhere to the UCI Campus Implementation of UC Policy of equal opportunity and non-discrimination. All members of ASUCI meeting the requirements herein after enumerated, are eligible and encouraged to seek, obtain, and hold office without discrimination or abridgment because of race, color, religion, marital status, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, economic status, political affiliation or physical abilities.

ARTICLE III DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS

Section A

ASUCI shall be organized into three branches: the Legislative, the Executive, and the Judicial.

1. The Legislative Branch shall consist of the Legislative Council.
2. The Executive Branch shall consist of the Executive Cabinet.

3. The Judicial Branch shall consist of the Judicial Board.

Section B

No person or group of persons in any one of these branches shall exercise power belonging to another branch, except as herein after expressly directed or permitted.

ARTICLE IV
ASUCI LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Section A

All legislative authority of ASUCI shall be vested in the Legislative Council, which shall be the supreme policy-making body of ASUCI, and shall promote the welfare and the interests of the undergraduate students, subject to limitations herein enumerated.

Section B

The actions of the Legislative Council shall be enacted upon a specific majority vote stipulated in the By-laws for a particular measure. The authority of the Legislative Council shall include, but is not limited to:

1. Enacting legislation necessary and proper for the general welfare of the undergraduate students, according to this constitution;
2. Appropriating all ASUCI fee income and requiring a timely and accurate accounting of income and expenditure of all funds. Total appropriation in any fiscal year may not exceed the total income for that fiscal year. A three-quarter (3/4) vote of the entire (all filled seats) Legislative Council is required to authorize any appropriation which would effect a deficit between income and expenses for the fiscal year; No legislative council may commit funds of any future administration;
3. Approving, by a majority vote of the voting Legislative Council members present, the commissioner appointments of the Executive Officers;
4. Removing from office any non-elected person holding a position of responsibility in ASUCI, except Judicial Board members, by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the voting Legislative Council members present, and a majority vote of the Executive Cabinet, for failure to perform the duties assigned the office and for failure to uphold this constitution and the By-laws;
5. Establishing stipends of elective or appointed officers, from ASUCI Treasury.;
6. Overriding an Executive Cabinet veto on any measure adopted by the Legislative Council, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Legislative Council members present (Any overriding of an Executive Cabinet veto shall be final and the measure immediately becomes legislation upon Judicial Board approval);
7. Establishing election procedures upon submittal by the Executive Vice-President or his/her appointed representative;
8. Submitting amendments to this constitution as herein provided;

9. Establishing ASUCI By-laws, ASUCI Elections Code, and the Judicial Board Policies and Procedures for the conduct of its business, each of which shall be subject to review and approval by the end of each academic year;

10. Establish standing or ad hoc committees, i.e. Rules, Finance, Public Information, Special Task Forces, to assist in any legislative recommendations.

11. Voting Legislative Council Members may receive remuneration equivalent to Commissioner Level I.

The duties of the Legislative Council shall be contained in the By-laws.

Section C

The Legislative Council membership shall be apportioned in the following manner:

1. Elected Membership: Three –quarter (3/4) of the elected members shall be elected by and from the Academic Units (degree granting unit) and shall be apportioned on the basis of the enrollment of each Academic Unit. Each Academic Unit shall be entitled to at least one representative. Academic Unit apportionment shall be as follows; undergraduate student enrollment of less than 2,000 shall entitle the Academic Unit to one representative, undergraduate enrollment of 2,000 but less than 4000 shall entitle the Academic Unit two representatives and undergraduate enrollment of 4,000 or greater shall entitle the Academic Unit to three representatives. One-fourth (1/4) of the total number of eligible seats shall be elected by and from the undergraduate students at-large. The number of at-large members shall equal one-third (1/3) that of the total members representing the Academic Units. Membership may vary with the undergraduate enrollment in the Academic Units and by the possible addition of new Academic Units.

2. Ex officio, non-voting membership:

- a. President
- b. Executive Vice-President
- c. Academic Affairs Vice-President
- d. Administrative Affairs Vice-President
- e. Student Services Vice-President

3. Appointed, non-voting membership: Appointed, non-voting Legislative Council seats shall be assigned by a simple majority vote of the voting members of the Legislative Council and shall be stated and reviewed yearly in the By-laws. Only organizations with officially recognized governing bodies representing diverse campus constituencies shall be considered for membership. The number of non-voting Legislative Council members shall not exceed five (5). Each of the representatives are to be appointed by the governing body from whence they come. Each representative must be a registered student in good standing (as determined by the Registrar), and must meet the membership criteria listed herein for Legislative Council members.

Section D

The qualifications for membership in Legislative Council shall be as follows:

1. The term of office for Legislative Council members shall be one full year, with one-half (1/2) of the members elected in spring quarter and the other one-half (1/2) shall be elected during fall quarter. A Legislative Council member shall assume office at the beginning of the academic quarter following their election. Appointed members shall assume office immediately following the confirmation of their appointment and shall finish the term of office of the seat for which they were appointed.

The authority of the Executive Director shall include but is not limited to:

1. Serving as the official representative of ASUCI in all business and financial dealings;
2. Recommending to the Executive Cabinet, policies for the administration of ASUCI operations, personnel, facilities, and auxiliary enterprises;
3. Keeping a suitable system of accounts, records, and books for the ASUCI and its various activities, all of which shall be kept in standard form so that a true statement of ASUCI's financial status may be prepared at anytime;
4. Being responsible to provide, at reasonable notice, any information pertaining to the functioning of the ASUCI, upon the request of the Legislative Council or Executive Cabinet;
5. Supervising the collection and expenditures of all ASUCI moneys;
6. Investing money in the name of ASUCI with the approval of the Executive Cabinet;
7. Borrowing in the name of ASUCI with the approval of the Executive Cabinet and the Legislative Council only when in session;
8. Being responsible for the appointment and removal of ASUCI staff employees, providing, at the request of the Legislative Council, all information pertaining to any personnel action, and reporting all actions taken in this regard to the President on a frequent and regularly consultative basis; and
9. Acting as trustee for ASUCI in maintaining financial accounts for various University of California, Irvine student organizations.

ARTICLE VIII REFERENDUMS, INITIATIVES, FEE INITIATIVES AND RECALLS

Section A

1. REFERENDA

a. Any legislation adopted by the Legislative Council may be subject to a referendum vote of the undergraduate students upon presentation of a petition, signed by a minimum of five percent (5%) of the undergraduate students to the Legislative Council. Legislative Council shall then either repeal said legislation, or submit the same legislation to a vote of the undergraduate students, not less than fifteen (15) academic days or more than two (2) academic quarters from the date of presentation of the petition to the Legislative Council.

b. Regular election procedures shall be followed as prescribed in the Elections Code.

c. A majority (fifty percent plus one) vote, with at least twenty percent (20%) of the undergraduate students voting, shall be required to repeal said legislation.

d. Legislation repealed in the above manner shall not be adopted again for at least one (1) year from the day the results are declared official.

2. INITIATIVES

a. The undergraduate students shall have the power to initiate legislation upon presentation of a petition, signed by a minimum of five percent (5%) of the undergraduate students, to the Legislative Council. Upon presentation of such a petition, the Legislative Council shall then either pass said legislation, or submit the same legislation to a vote of the undergraduate students, not less than fifteen (15) academic days or more than two (2) academic quarters from the date of presentation of the petition to the Legislative Council.

b. Regular election procedures shall be followed as prescribed in the Elections Code.

c. A majority (fifty percent plus one) vote, with at least twenty percent (20%) of the undergraduate students voting, shall be required to adopt said legislation.

d. Legislation adopted in the above manner shall have precedence over all previous ASUCI legislation, and no contradicting legislation may be adopted by the Legislative Council for at least one (1) year from the day the results are declared official.

3. FEE INITIATIVES

a. The undergraduate students shall have the power to initiate a self-assessed fee either by a formal vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Legislative Council or by means of a petition signed by no less than eight percent (8%) of the undergraduate students.

b. Upon presentation of a fee petition, or approval by two-thirds (2/3) of the Legislative Council, the Council shall submit the fee initiative to a vote of the undergraduate students not less than fifteen (15) academic days or more than two (2) academic quarters.

- c. All fee initiatives affecting the undergraduate students shall follow regular election procedures as prescribed in the Elections Code.
- d. A vote of at least sixty percent (60%), with at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the undergraduate students voting, shall be necessary to adopt all self-assessed fees.
- e. The Legislative Council shall approve the election process in accordance with the Elections Code. Final approval shall be made by the Chancellor.
- f. In the event of a negative outcome on any fee initiative vote, the fee initiative shall not return to the ballot until two (2) academic quarters have elapsed from the day the fee results are declared official.

4. RECALLS

- a. Elected officers to ASUCI, shall be subject to recall upon presentation of a petition, signed by a minimum of five percent (5%) of the undergraduate students eligible to vote for the specified officer, to the Legislative Council. Judicial Board members are subject to recall upon presentation of a petition, signed by five percent (5%) of the undergraduate students, to the Legislative Council.
- b. All recall petitions must have a recall statement clearly stating the justification for the recall attempt. The individual(s) specified in the recall petition may challenge the validity of the petition if it is felt that the recall statement misrepresented the factual comments or events by filing a complaint with the ASUCI Judicial Board. Judicial Board members may challenge the recall petition through the Judicial Board Oversight Committee.
- c. Upon presentation of said petition, the Legislative Council shall submit it to a vote of the undergraduate students not less than fifteen (15) academic days or more than two (2) academic quarters from the date of presentation of the petition to the Legislative Council.
- d. Regular election procedures shall be followed as prescribed in the Elections Code.
- e. A two-thirds (2/3) vote to recall, with at least twenty percent (20%) of the undergraduate students voting, shall be required to recall an elected officer or Judicial Board member.
- f. Upon failure of a recall election, the specified elected officer or Judicial Board member shall not be subject to another recall for at least ten (10) school weeks.

All referenda, initiatives, fee initiatives, or recall elections shall coincide with the most immediate regularly scheduled fall or spring student body at-large election, or a winter special election. No referendum, initiative, fee initiative, or recall petition may call for a lock-out (lock-in) of ASUCI fees, annual budgetary allocations or investments; the allocation of all ASUCI funds remains the sole responsibility of the Legislative Council.

ARTICLE IX ELECTIONS

Section A

1. Control of all elections and related activities shall rest with the Election Commissioner, as empowered by the Election Code which shall be subject to the approval of the Legislative Council. The Elections Commission shall be chaired by the Executive Vice-President and shall consist of the Elections Commissioner and three (3) Deputy Commissioners, nominated by the Executive Vice-President and approved by a majority vote of all the voting members of the Legislative Council present. Should the Executive Vice President declare his/her candidacy for an ASUCI elected position, the Executive Cabinet shall choose another member of the Executive Cabinet to Chair the Elections Commission. No Executive Cabinet Member may serve as Chair of the Elections Commission who has declared candidacy for an ASUCI elected office
2. Any decision of the Elections Commission shall be final unless appealed to the Judicial Board.
3. Two (2) regular elections shall be held each year, one (1) during the Fall quarter and one during the Spring quarter.
4. One (1) Winter quarter special election will be held at the request of a validated referendum, initiative, or recall petition.
5. The specific dates for regular and special elections shall be set by the Legislative Council as prescribed in the Elections Code.

ARTICLE X CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Section A

Amendments to this Constitution may be made by either of the following two (2) methods:

1. Upon approval of a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the voting members of the Legislative Council.
2. Upon presentation of a petition, signed by ten percent (10%) of the undergraduate students to the Legislative Council.

Upon fulfillment of either (a) or (b) above, the Legislative Council shall submit said amendment to a vote of the undergraduate students. Regular election procedures shall be followed as prescribed by the Elections Code and the last paragraph of Article VIII of this Constitution.

Section B

The Legislative Council shall arrange for proper publicity of the election, which shall include, but is not limited to, the publications and broadcast of the full text of the amendment in the various student media during the school week prior to the election. Full texts shall also be made available at the polls and at the other regular distribution locations.

Section C
