2. The Senate President shall reserve original authority over the Senate Intern Commissioner, and all subordinates under the Senate Intern Commissioner.
3. The Senate President shall have the authority to directly overview all applications, orders, and or actions undertaken by the Senate Intern Commissioner.

V. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- A. The Senate shall abide by the parliamentary procedure rules as described in Robert's Rules of Order.
 1. Reasonable attempts must be made by the Executive Director of ASUCI and the President of the Senate to educate members of Senate on proper use of these rules.
 2. Use of the book is subject to the limitations of the Senate By-Laws and the ASUCI Constitution.
- B. Debates and Reports shall be modified from Robert's Rules of Order in the following ways:

1. All Executive Officer reports and committee reports shall be limited to ten (10) minutes.
2. All debates on Bills and Resolutions under consideration in Old Business shall be limited to fifteen (15) minutes.
3. All debates on Bills and Resolutions under consideration in New Business shall be limited to ten (10) minutes.
4. Each member of Senate shall be limited to two (2) minutes speaking time during debate.
5. Each member of Senate may speak only once during debate until all other Senators have had the chance to speak.
 - a) If a member of Senate wishes to speak on a given motion twice, the Chair must first ask if any others wish to speak on the question.

- b) The initial reading and introduction of a Bill or Resolution by its author do not count toward this limit, as it precedes debate.
 - 6. Anyone shall have the opportunity to speak at Senate meetings, and is to be recognized by the Chair of the Senate. Guests shall be empowered to raise points of orders and points of information, participate in discussion, and propose friendly amendments.
 - 7. If the Bill or Resolution had been referred to committee, the Chair of that committee shall have the right to be the first to speak in debate.
- C. Guest Speakers may be invited by any member of Senate to speak at any Regular, Special or Summer meeting.
- 1. A guest speaker shall be allotted speaking time on the Agenda by the Chair of the Senate and introduced during that time by the inviting Senator.

VI. MEETINGS

- A. Reasonable attempts must be made to contact all Senators for any regular, special, or summer contingency Senate meetings.
- 1. All meetings of the Senate must be open except when the Senate wishes to deal with matters of pending or anticipated litigation, other legal matters, matters of personnel, or investments. To ensure this, the Chair of the Senate shall make a note of when a closed session will or has taken place on the agenda and minutes
 - 2. There shall be no mandatory Senate events which incur monetary debt.
- B. Regular Meetings
- 1. Senate meetings shall be held Tuesday and Thursday from 5pm until 7pm each Academic Quarter.
- C. Special Meetings
- 1. The Senate may initiate a Special Meeting by presenting a petition signed by a quarter (1/4) of its members to the Chair of the Senate. This petition shall contain the date, time, location, and agenda of the meeting.
- D. Summer Meetings

1. During the Summer defined as starting from the last day of finals week of the Spring Quarter to the first day of the Fall Quarter, the Senate shall vest its full authority in a Summer Senate. The members shall be those Senators who attend said Senate meetings. A quorum and a minimum of three (3) Executive Officers must be present to conduct business. The Summer Senate shall not pass any measure which requires a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all voting Senators, unless those proportions are present.

E. Quorum

1. A quorum of the Senate shall be a majority of its filled Senate seats or 50 percent of sitting Senators plus one (1) additional Senator.

F. Attendance

1. Absences shall be defined as not being present for more than three-fourths (3/4) of any Regular Senate meeting or Senate Committee meeting.
2. A half absence will be noted for any Senator who arrives to a meeting more than thirty (30) minutes late, or leaves before meeting has been officially adjourned without an excusal from the President of the Senate.
3. Any Senator with three (3) total absences per Quarter at Regular Senate meetings shall be eligible for dismissal from the Senate by Legislation from the Rules Committee.
4. Any Senator with three (3) total absences per Quarter at Senate Committee Meetings, shall be eligible for dismissal by Legislation from the Rules Committee.
5. The Rules Committee shall seek a replacement for vacancies, providing there are at least four (4) Regular Senate meetings remaining in the term. Dismissed persons are eligible to apply for such vacancies. A written appeal submitted to the Senate Chair within one (1) week following a dismissal will result in a Senate vote with two-thirds (2/3) of all filled Senate seats required to overturn the dismissal.
6. Executive Officers shall not be exempt from this absence policy when acting on other business relating to their executive duties. The chair shall be informed of the reason(s) for absence prior to the meeting and shall announce these reason(s) during that absent officer's report time.

I. VOTING

- A. All duly elected or appointed voting Senators in good standing shall have full voting rights and privileges on the floor.
- B. Voting on main motions shall be by roll call on the demand of three (3) voting Senators.
- C. Only seats present and exercising their right to vote shall be counted when determining majority or two-thirds (2/3) votes.
- D. If a Senator abstains on a vote during a meeting, that member is voluntarily refraining from voting. Abstentions are therefore non-votes and shall not be counted as either yes or no, but shall count in the total number of votes.
- E. The motion for a Ballot, or any motion that obstructs the ability of any given member of the public the ability to see, understand, or identify how a given member of Senate votes, shall be exclusively denied on any given Resolution or Bill. All votes on any given Resolution or Bill shall be recorded in a fashion that allows members of the public, present or not present, to see and be able to interpret how each member of the Senate has voted, through the traditional "Yes", "No", or "Abstain" vote. The only exception shall be for the appointment of Senate officers, like the President of the Senate or Senate Secretary, or making any other sensitive appointments that would require Senators to choose one Senator over another. An exception shall also be granted to allow a Ballot vote procedure if Senate is voting to retain or dismiss Senators. These exceptions shall only be in place to protect Senate's morale and to not compromise Senate's ability to operate and cooperate amongst one another.

II. AGENDA

- A. The Agenda shall consist of the following:

12. The Student Advocate General shall serve for one (1) academic year and shall assume office at noon on the first day of Commencement.

XII. JOINT COMMITTEES

- A. The joint committees, as specified in Article 11 of ASUCI Constitution, must convene at least twice a quarter in order to discuss fulfillment of their duties as described in the ASUCI Constitution.

- a. The Chair of the respective committee shall call for more meetings as needed.
- B. Quorum for the joint committees shall be a simple majority of the listed members, as described in the ASUCI Constitution.
- C. Members voting in joint committees and all other committees and board meetings in the ASUCI Constitution have the ability to incorporate proxy voting; if a mandated member of the committee cannot attend, they can send a representative to the committee to participate in and vote on their behalf.

XIII. GUIDELINES FOR THE EXPENDITURE OF ASUCI FUNDS

- A. No money from ASUCI funds can be donated to the campaigns of person(s) running for campus, local, statewide, or national political office, either directly or indirectly. Money can be paid as an honorarium for any (non-campaigning) speaking engagement.
- B. ASUCI shall follow generally accepted business and accounting procedures and methods of accountability as approved by the Chancellor.
- C. The total expenses incurred during one (1) fiscal year by the ASUCI will not exceed the total income and reserves for that year. Nor will the Senate approve expenditures to be made during one (2) fiscal year, for which the corresponding income must occur during a different budgetary period.
- D. At the end of the fiscal year, all unused expenditures will be transferred into an account called "ASUCI Reserves."
 - 1. The conditions that must be met to access the ASUCI Reserves account include the following:
 - a. Purchase of equipment or technology that provides a long-term benefit to the organization.
 - b. Unanticipated one-time expenses that are necessary and vital to the organization.
 - c. Payroll funds for a new position in Student Government that is necessary and vital to the organization.
 - 2. The process by which ASUCI reserves accounts may be accessed is as follows:
 - a. A member of Senate or executive officer may write a Bill to utilize ASUCI Reserve account funds, which is seconded by a member of Senate. The author must designate a specific amount that will be transferred from ASUCI

Reserves into a designated account. A two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote from Senate is required.

3. If ASUCI experiences a deficit at the end of a fiscal year, ASUCI Reserves shall be used to cover the deficit, pending sufficient funds and a report shall be presented to Senate by the Executive Director explaining the circumstances and how the deficit will be prevented in the future.

E. The budget for the fiscal year, July 1 to June 30, shall be recommended by a closed committee composed of the Executive Officers of the current academic year and the Executive Officers of the upcoming year and passed by the Senate of the current academic year. This committee shall be chaired by the President for the present academic year and the budget under consideration shall be forwarded to the Senate at the committee's discretion, but must include a roll call vote of the members of the committee and may include any majority or minority reports by the officers involved. The Senate, upon conclusion of these hearings, shall take final action on the budget.

F. In order to remove funding a letter of "Intent to Remove Funds" must be delivered to the parties involved. The letter must include: the name of the organization, the date of the decision, the problem(s), positive criticisms and suggestions to correct said problem(s) as well as a statement concerning any appeal procedures. Any Senator may introduce a letter of Intent to Remove Funds, but it must pass with a majority vote. The letter must give the party two (2) weeks, the respondent may ask Senate for a one (1) or two (2) week extension. This extension may be introduced by any Senator, but must be passed by a majority vote. If, after two (2) weeks no request for an extension or a change in policy has occurred, then the funds may be removed by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the Senate. If, after funds are withdrawn, and the respondent wishes to appeal the decision, it may be reintroduced by any Senator and a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the Senate will be required to appeal the funding withdrawal. This procedure is to be used for Commissioners as well as for Campus Organizations funded by ASUCI. In cases where regulatory committees exist, the committee may formulate a letter of Intent to Remove Funds and have any Senator introduce said letter. In cases in which letters have been independently introduced and a regulatory committee exists, it shall be the duty of the committee to endorse the letter.

XIV. INITIATIVES, REFERENDA, RECALL, AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

A. The name and student I.D. card number of an official registered UCI student shall constitute a valid signature for purpose of petitions requesting legislation, recall or constitutional amendments, as described in Articles XII and XV of the ASUCI Constitution. Such signatures shall be validated through the Office of the Registrar prior to the petition's introduction to the Senate, if challenged by any member of the ASUCI.

B. A validly approved recall election shall take place during a general election, if a general election is to take place between fifteen (15) and thirty (30) days after the submission of a validated petition. If a general election is not to take place during the above described time limits, then a special election is to take place fifteen (15) days after the receipt of said petition.

XV. AMENDMENT TO SENATE BY-LAWS

A. Recommendations

1. The Committee on Rules shall annually review the Senate By-laws and make the recommendations for improvement.

B. Amendments and Revisions

1. The Senate By-Laws may be amended or revised by three fourths (3/4) of the voting Senators present.

2. Amendments to the By-Laws shall be proposed and automatically tabled one (1) school week prior to the forthcoming vote by the Senate, to allow for their review. If the amendments are co-authored by the entire Rules Committee, then the bill can be called to vote immediately.
